General Information

Short summary

The Polish company mainly produces pickled and marinated vegetables and related products such as pickled vegetables juices. It is also a supplier of fresh peeled, whole or sliced, packaged vegetables for individual customers or for the Horeca market, hotels and catering. For this moment, the company is interested in finding a supplier of pickled tomatoes (whole, packed in barrels).

Full description

The company is a modern, rapidly growing family business that has been on the market since 1984. It specializes in the production of:

- pickled cucumbers,
- cucumber puree,
- frozen pickled cucumbers cut into catkins or strips,
- seasonal small-salted cucumbers,
- organic pickled cucumbers,
- sauerkraut,
- organic sauerkraut,
- sauerkraut juice,
- fruit and vegetable salads based on cucumbers and sauerkraut,
- red beets cooked whole or sliced,

- peeled boiled potatoes whole or cut,
- peeled carrots cooked, whole or cut,
- red beet juice,
- traditional sour soup,
- Silesian sour soup,
- red beet borscht,
- pickled onions cut into cubes, slices , strips,
- peeled vegetables fresh, whole or sliced packaged, for individual customers or for Horeca market customers, hotels and catering.

Manufactured products are of the highest quality. They are characterized by excellent taste qualities, because they are produced from fresh, carefully selected vegetables, obtained from the company's own fields.

The company has its own souring facilities for 6,000 tons of cabbage and 1,100 tons of cucumbers, a modern product packaging plant and processing and storage halls. It also specializes in the production of marinated onions cut into cubes, slices , strips and other semi-finished products for fish processing plants and gastronomy.

The company is improving by introducing new technologies. It cares about hygiene and process quality of manufactured products. It has implemented and certified by Tuv Rheinland international food safety standards BRC, HACCP and PL EKO.

Manufactured products are inspected at every stage of production, and are tested in an accredited laboratory.

The company quickly and accurately responds to new and growing market needs for organic food, which is why we have a fermentation plant and a processing line dedicated to the production of certified organic pickles and other products.

The company's clients are the largest retail chains and other stores, wholesalers and food processing plants throughout Poland. A large part of the products are sold to foreign markets. The company also has its own well-developed transportation base.

It is possible to prepare, at the request of the client, packaging with a selected graphic design, with the company's logo on any article.

A Polish company is interested in acquiring a supplier of pickled tomatoes from EU countries, preferably Romania, Hungary, Serbia or Bulgaria. They should be whole and packed in barrels. The supplier should have a European HACCP quality certificate.
